OFFICE OF THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER, MANGALORE.

Notification dated 21st December 1968.

Notification under Sections 72, 244 and 247 of the M. M. Act, 1964.

The following are the conditions of the sale of the shops and rooms at the Market buildings :—

1. No person will be permitted to bid at the auction unless he deposits as security a sum of Rs. 200 against each shop. No defaulters will be permitted to bid at the auction.

2. A list of bidders provisionally closed at the auction will be placed before the Council or the Contract Committee as the case may be, which is the competent authority to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

3. The deposit of unsuccessful bidders will be refunded soon after the Municipal Council or the Standing Committee as the case may be, decides who the successful bidder is. The upset price at which the auction commences is Rs. 200 per month for each Shop and Hall and Rs. 100 for each Room.

4. If it is found that the person who has offered the highest bid in respect of any shop withdraws such offer before the confirmation of the bid by the Council or the Standing Committee as the case may be, it is open to the Council or the Standing Committee to accept the next highest bid amount. The person or the persons who withdraw the offer once made, shall not be entitled to the refund of the security deposit and they shall also be made responsible for any loss which the Council may sustain on account of the withdrawal of bids offerred and subsequently withdrawn.

5. If a person who has to bid in respect of one shop and if he is the highest bidder or the 2nd highest bidder towards the said shop, and if he wishes to bid for another shop, separate deposit is required for such second bid.

6. The successful bidder shall within three days of the confirmation of the bid in his favour, deposit a further sum which will make the total deposit to three months licence fee and Rs. 25-00 towards electricity charges. If the deposit is not made up, the deposit already made will be forfeited to the Council and the shop either will be resold or managed departmentally and the defaulter will be liable for any loss sustained therefrom, which will be recovered from any amount of the defaulter that may be with the Council or otherwise. He will not be entitled to participate in any profit. The balance of the bid amount shall be paid in equal instalments on or before 7th day of every month. If any instalment is not paid in time, the licencees shall pay the amount of such instalment within the month to which it relates together with interest thereon at 12½ per annum from the date of default till payment is made. If any instalment is not paid on the due date or within the month in which it becomes payable with interest e. g., if the instalment due on 7th June is not paid before 30th June, the licence may be cancelled or suspended by the Executive Authority and the shop managed departmentally or otherwise at the risk of the licencee till it is resold or till the licence fee is paid respectively. The licensee will be responsible for all losses thus caused to the Municipality, but will not participate in profits. The license will not be entitled to receive any notice for paying any dues to the Council.

7. The deed of licence shall be executed and registered within seven days of the confirmation of the sale unless a shorter time is fixed by the special order and no person shall be allowed to exercise his right as a licensee until the deed is executed. He shall execute and register at his cost on a stamp paper an agreement in the prescribed form embodying the terms of the final settlement of the terms and conditions subject to which the licence is granted. If the agreement is not executed within the prescribed time, deposit made will be forfeited to the Council, and the shop is liable to be resold by the Executive Authority or managed departmentally at his risk, but will not be entitled to participate in any profit. He will be liable for any loss which will be recovered from any money of the party that may be with the Council or otherwise.

8. The licensee will be liable to make good any amount of arrears against him of sums adjudged due by him even after termination of licence.

9. Any arrears of licence fee or other sums payable by the licensee will be recovered by adjustment from the deposit referred to in Paragraph 6 and if this is done, the licensee shall make good the deposit.

10. The shop shall not be transferred by the licensee or sublet. It shall be surrendered to the Municipality, at night of the last date of licenced period, unless the licence is cancelled prior to that date. No remission whatsoever will be allowed to the licensee on any account.
